

WHAT'S NEW AT LEGACY

Open Doors Event Great Success!

Over 150 guests attended our Open Doors event on September 21st to partake in tours, informative wellness presentations, a feast of multicultural food nibbles from 7 different countries topped off with musical entertainment provided by Pianist Annette Wertman and Harpist Camille Fournier.

Legacy's entertainment calendar for September also welcomed the talents of musical duo, Allen and Sharon Boolinoff and upbeat hits by solo fiddler, Mike Sanyshyn.

We are now proud to offer piano entertainment seven times a week, from a variety of artists including Annette Wertman (Monday & Friday); Hois Yip (Tuesday & Wednesday) and joining us all the way from Japan, for Thursday to Saturday performances in October, we are thrilled to welcome Takako Kano. We invite you to drop in and enjoy these wonderful performers.

Tech-Easy - Youth Helping Seniors

Learning continues at Legacy. Tech-Easy is a volunteer based community service organization initiated by high school students to assist seniors in learning computer technology. Albert Cherng, Founder of Tech-Easy and his team were able to provide one on one support, answer questions and teach residents how to use Ipad's, Macs and Windows 8. We will definitely be offering this service again in the future. For more information, please visit their website at www.tech-easy.ca.

“One should always aim for what is best for oneself. I tell my senior friends, don’t wait, the earlier they come, the earlier they can benefit. Life is yours. You have to make good decisions for yourself and not be totally dependent on your children.

Our children today have many challenges to deal with both at work and perhaps with their own families. They do not always have time to care for you, not because they do not love you, but this is reality.

At Legacy I have everything I need. This is far better than hiring caretakers for yourself. I know I made the right choice for myself and my family. I want to share this with all seniors. You will not regret it.

Thank you to the Leo Wertman Residence for providing such a fantastic place for us.”
